Task 2: Navigate the app to find a map showing all of the tagged sightings of the Northern Spotted Owl.	Clicked all over the app navigating to "species list", "species profile", "news" and "community" going back and forth multiple times before eventually finding "sightings" option, choosing "birds" and then choosing "northern spotted owl."	Stopped to read directions this time but had trouble finding the correct user path even though she successfully used it in the previous task.	NA	2

Task 1: Navigate the app to learn about the Northern Spotted Owl, an endangered species of bird native to Oregon.	Clicked "choose state" drop down menu and selected "Oregon" to go to "Home" screen. Tried clicking undclickable links, clicked back and forth between "news" "community" and "home" screens multiple times before choosing "birds" and finding the "northern spotted owl" species profile	Expressed appreciation for the layout/design but had trouble navigating it.	"That's a super wireframe, perfect."	2
Task 2: Navigate the app to find a map showing all of the tagged sightings of the Northern Spotted Owl.	Tried clicking "sightings" but wouldn't connect. Tried clicking multiple links but same problem.	Some sort of error with the usability test made it impossible to complete the task. Seemed to understand "sightings" was the correct path forward though.	"Sightings... really trying to click on that, hammering but not getting anything."	3
Task 4: Navigate the app to find the news page and view an article posted 45 minutes ago.	Clicked "news" button to go to "news" page and selected article from 45 minutes ago.	No problems		1
Additional Notes: 4/5 "Keeping things light and simple. I like the way it works. I'd have to interface with it on my own in a wide open manner for a good 3-5 minutes before I'd be able to give much for positive insight, but what's framed so far is nice and simple and I consider it rather straightforward and intuitive."
